With E3 2018, PlayStation® fans will be able to experience games in real-time and in the most social setting — online in PlayStation®'s world-class E3 Coliseum. The session will offer game developers and publishers the chance to interact with fans in a brand new and live environment. Attendees will be able to play games with other PS4 owners in their homes with the PS4 companion app. And PlayStation fans from all over the world will be able to watch the show through the PlayStation Network on Twitch, YouTube, or on PS4. One of the most important things you'll be looking at when you play this game is your team. It's pretty simple — you have a selection of icons with different abilities. What you do is find a team to play as, and then you're ready to go. The more the game progresses, the more complex the game becomes, and the more choice you'll have. You'll have to make your team fit the needs of the story. Sometimes you'll be just an observer, cheering for your friends or enemies. Other times, you'll be a part of the action. You'll have to get into the action yourself and become the best player you can be. As your team reaches its goals, the game will show you 82157476af
